Five By Design's signature harmonies have withstood the test of time in a career that stands out on America's musical landscape, spanning more than fifteen years.

This nationally-acclaimed vocal ensemble has been the choice of symphony orchestras and performing art centers delighting hundreds of thousands. However, Five By Design's creative talents go far beyond their vocal prowess. Whether backed by symphony orchestra or studio big band, Five By Design embraces the unforgettable melodies, lush harmonies, and swinging rhythms that evoke the names of Miller, Mancini and Mercer.

The Swing Dolls are a dynamic female vocal trio who have been thrilling audiences nationwide for over 10 years with their stunning close harmonies, dazzling costumes and stylish choreography.

They have garnered appearances on television's "Gilmore Girls" and "Your Big Break", they star in their original show, "The Swing Dolls present a Tribute to the USO", and they frequently perform for major corporate and private events.

Their countless featured appearances include: The Kennedy Center with The Los Angeles Police Department Concert Band; The Avi Casino in Laughlin, NV; The American Red Cross Annual Fundraiser; Bob Hope's 100th Birthday celebration and many more!

To many music enthusiasts, TheFour Freshmen need no introduction. Starting as college students in 1948, the young group won fame with their renditions of "Graduation Day," "Poinciana," "Day by Day" and "BlueWorld." Stan Kenton played a major role in advancing the early career of TheFour Freshmen, and their unique sound strongly influenced other vocal groups, such as Manhattan Transfer, Take 6 and the Beach Boys.

Today's Four Freshmen ensemble is considered by many to be the greatest jazz vocal group of all time. They continue to tour worldwide with sold-out audiences, sharing their unique brand of magnetism, stage presence and approach to the Freshmen standards.

Ballroom with a Twist is a critically acclaimed international dance production choreographed by ABC-TV's Dancing With the Stars, Emmy nominated, Louis van Amstel. This ground-breaking show, starring Dancing With The Stars celebrity pros & finalists from TV's So You Think You Can Dance and American Idol. The show pushes the boundaries of ballroom dance, infusing it with the energy and intensity of the latest contemporary and "hip-hop" styles. Ballroom with a Twist is an evening of entertainment for the entire family, highlighted by stunning costumes, magnificent music and breathtaking performances.

Gurl and Girl Productions, who brought you Laughing with the Legends, is back with the rip-roaring, acoustic fun arts foursome Three Men and a Maestro.

Four dynamic guys charm and dazzle the audience with a highly energized fusion of pop, jazz, ethnic, classical, bluegrass and Broadway. Get ready for an evening of hot licks, poignant melodies, sizzling arrangements and a sprinkling of comedy as pianist and maestro Brian Gurl guides this fabulous foursome on a journey that creates an exciting and playful tension between artistic refinement and rip-roaring musical fun! Audiences are continually thrilled with this ensemble's mix of fiddle wizardry - compliments of Lenny Ski, Brian's brilliant piano playing and a captivating artistic interaction between all four performers.

Since its founding in 1983 by Michael Levine, Dallas Brass has become one of America's foremost musical ensembles. The group has established a unique blend of traditional brass instruments, including two trumpets, trombone, tuba and French horn with a full complement of drums and percussion, creating a performing entity of extraordinary range.

While symphonic credits include the New York Pops, Cincinnati Pops and the Philly Pops, Dallas Brass has been featured at Carnegie Hall, the Kennedy Center and has toured overseas to Europe and the Far East. Their extensive repertoire ranges from classical to Dixieland, swing to Broadway, and Hollywood to patriotic.
